Friend Chapman

The young fellow who was collecting Coins has about reached the age that interest is abating and I desire to ask if you would consider purchasing the entire lot - if I do succeed in having promise to dispose of same - should a list be sent you or send the entire Collection to you and allow you to make a bid on same. You are aware of the most of the Coins - but think he

Dear Sir:

Without seeing the pieces which you enumerate it is really impossible for us to tell you what we charge for them, unless we look back through all the purchases you have made from us, and of which we fear, bills were not rendered you.

If it is really important for you to know the exact price we will make this examination for you.

Very respectfully,

S. H. & H. Chapman

Cleveland, Ohio 10/22. 03

Dear Sir:

You ordered me bills for all the coins I enumerated to you - but the bills were turned over to the young man & so far he has been unable to locate same - Do not inconvenience yourselves in giving me the data asked
